PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

RECAPITULATION (Without Delegates from

The North Carolinian.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land."

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Tuesday, February 18, 1868.

THE reconstruction acts present these alternatives for the choice of the people of North Carolina: reconstruction upon the terms prescribed in those acts, or continuance under military rule as we now have it. It behooves us, therefore, dispassionately to consider the relative advantages or disadvantages of the alternatives offered. If we desire reconstruction, regardless of the consequences which shall follow it, we have only to adopt the constitution now framing by the convention in this city. If, however, we prefer to continue, as we are, under the control of the military authorities assigned to the command of this district, we must unite and organize for the defeat of that constitution. Which of these courses shall we adopt? Assent to reconstruction is, among other things, assent to the admission of the negro to the privilege of suffrage and to all the offices of the government: it is assent to a militia system in which white men and negroes are indiscriminately enrolled; and, in which, negroes, in certain counties must, from the force of circumstances, fill all the offices, provided for by the system: it is assent to the dogma of social equality, which follows the political, as an inevitable and inexorable consequence. Are we prepared for these things? There are 70,000 negro voters in North Carolina, according to the registration had previous to the election for a convention and for delegates thereto. These men have no knowledge of government—are deficient in those qualities which would make them valuable as citizens. They are capricious, credulous, passionate and, as a class, vicious. Through their passions and their prejudices they have been heretofore, and can be hereafter, welded into a compact mass by the wiles of the demagogue and for his purposes. They are an inferior race and have already all the rights necessary to their safety and happiness. They are ignorant, and therefore liable to imposition. Of what practical benefit to them or to the State will the conferring of suffrage be? We confess that we can see no good to come from such a proceeding. On the contrary we do see much evil which will arise.

There are in every community, base white men who would not scruple to pander to their prejudices and grant their demands, provided they could thereby secure their co-operation. Does any man suppose that the negro will be satisfied with suffrage merely? that he will not demand, in compensation for his support, an equal division of the offices of the government? He would be the veriest fool thus to work for others, receiving no reward for his labor—a political slave, much more degraded than the "enlightened philanthropists" of the age deemed him under our system before the war. He would demand a reward for his services and that reward could only be found in his participation in the offices of the State.

With negro jurors, magistrates, legislators, judges and governors, what security could there be for life or property? Who would not feel that trials by juries were the veriest farces, and decisions by judges the result of caprices or hates? What hope could there be for the future of the State thus governed? Would capital seek investment in our bonds, our works of internal improvement, in manufactures or in mines, when causes, involving thousands of dollars, were to be adjudicated by jurors, who do not know the plaintiff from the defendant, and whose verdicts would be the result, not of thought, but of whim? Would immigrants come amongst us, when their lives and their property might be so imperilled? Who dare think so? Nay, verily. Reconstruction upon the terms of Congress will be the doom of our prosperity. Regard for our material interests demands that we shall defeat the scheme so dangerous to our welfare. The evils we have are light compared to those which will come, should we seek a return to the Union by the acceptance of this constitution.

IN the Convention, on Saturday, while the Bill of Rights was under discussion, Capt. Durham moved to insert the following as an additional section to come between sections 33 and 34 of the bill: The Caucassian and African races are distinct by nature and color; therefore all intermarriages between the Caucassian, or white race, and the African, or black, are forever prohibited.

Capt. Durham called the yeas and nays on the motion, but the Radical members of the body shirked the question, by moving to lay it on the table. Captain Durham explained that, as his amendment was to the whole bill and not to a particular section, if it was laid on the table, it would carry the whole bill with it. Other members differed, and Mr. Cowles distinguished himself by a most brilliant decision, that the point raised by Capt. Durham was not well taken.—However, we desire to direct attention to the action of the entire body, and not to the extraordinary learning of its presiding officer. Another vote for social equality, white men.

THE New York Herald has abandoned Mr. Johnson and declares for Gen. Grant as President. Mr. Bennett does not believe that any other candidate can defeat Gen. Grant, and therefore advises the Democracy "to turn their attention and their efforts from the President to the next Congress, and they may secure a House of Representatives which, from the beginning to the end, will give us, under Grant, a conservative administration."

We rather expect the Democrats will give their attention and efforts to both the President and House of Representatives and give us to that extent a Democratic administration.

THE SCALAWAGS.

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

TWENTY-NINTH DAY.

MONDAY, Feb. 17.

The so-called were called to order at 10 A. M.

At the suggestion of Mr. Abbott, the Secretary was instructed to place on the records the names of members, who are absent when the ayes and nays are called.

RESOLUTIONS, &C.

Mr. Abbott introduced an ordinance in regard to the freights on the Wilmington and Weldon and the North Carolina railroads. Referred.

CALENDAR.

Mr. Rich called up the ordinance, reported by the Committee, establishing an Immigration Agency in the city of New York, and moved to amend it by inserting in line 7, after the word "years," the words "under the direction of the Bureau of Statistics and Immigration."

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, moved to strike out, in the 9th line, $2,500 and insert instead $2,000.

Mr. McDonald said that there were a great many men who would take the place for $1000. (Wouldn't you do it yourself, Johnnie, at those figures?) He did not wish to send men there who would live at first class hotels, eat nuts and raisins, &c. North Carolina was too poor.

Mr. Ashley—the veserable pilgrim—said that an agent ought to be appointed, whom immigrants could place confidence in, and he hoped the Convention would not place the salary so low that it would be difficult to get respectable men to take the place. [Old Pilgrim don't want it, or he would never have made a speech demanding the appointment of a respectable man.]

Mr. McDonald replied that the State was too poor to establish so many offices and pay such large salaries, and denounced the yeas and nays. [That's Radical relief for the people, John. You had better hush up. It is a practical way to relieve them of all they have or can make.]

The yeas and nays were called with the following result: yeas 63; nays 26.

Mr. McDonald then moved to amend further by striking out in the 4th line, after the word "State," the words "the governor shall appoint," and inserting the words "the people shall elect."

Mr. Forkner moved to postpone indefinitely.

Mr. Abbott thought it best to postpone to a day certain, as the matter was one of too much importance to be lightly considered.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, opposed the ordinance. During the delivery of Mr. Jones' remarks, the hour of 11 was announced.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The report of the Committee on Corporations other than municipal, being the Special Order,

The question recurred on Mr. Tourgee's substitute for sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 to come in as section 4, to wit: "No banks of issue shall be established in the State."

Mr. Jones, of Washington, opposed the substitute, and said that the substitute of Mr. Tourgee prohibited the establishment of joint stock companies, and if the people did not need such companies now, the time would come when they would need them. He made the remarks as a member of the committee for the purpose of showing to the house the necessity of defeating the substitute.

Mr. Welker, "Aminidab Sleek," of Guilford, came manfully to the rescue of his discomfited colleague. The people, he said, only wanted an increase of the currency that they might have enough to carry on business.

By request of Mr. Rodman, the question was divided, and the Convention decided to strike out,

The section proposed by the Tourgee was taken up. Vote being taken, it was lost.

The 11th section was then read, when

Mr. Welker moved to strike out section 11, and refer it to the committee on Municipal Corporations. Motion lost.

The section was then adopted.

Mr. Abbott introduced, by permission, a bill to review the charter of the Dan River and Coalfields Railroad. Referred.

Mr. Watts, by permission, introduced an ordinance prohibiting the collection of debts, contracted for the purchase or hire of slaves, which was for the purpose of aiding the rebellion.—Ordered to be printed.

The report of the committee on homesteads was then taken up, on motion of the Chairman, Mr. Jones, of Caldwell.

Mr. Jones said that the committee had concluded to report a bill prospective in its operations, as a retrospective bill would amount to repudiation and tend to destroy faith between man and man.

Mr. Morton was opposed to the report and moved to postpone its consideration until to-morrow week. He however, amended his motion so as to postpone until Thursday next at 11 o'clock. The motion prevailed.

Mr. McDonald, need we say of Chatham? moved to take up his ordinance in favor of H. B. Guthrie, sheriff of Orange county, and that it be referred to a select committee of five, which was carried.

Mr. Bryan gave notice that he would make a motion on to-morrow for a reconsideration of the vote, striking out certain sections in the report of the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. Watts, the handsome delegate from Martin, called up his ordinance, providing that no Trustee or Mortgagee, in any mortgage or deed of trust, made to secure debts contracted prior to May 1st, 1863, shall sell the property conveyed to him by such deed before the 1st day of July, 1868, or the adoption of the constitution which this convention has met to form, whichever shall first happen, except by consent of the grantor in such deed, or unless the property conveyed by such deed (if it be land) shall bring at the sale the sum at which it was assessed for taxation in 1860.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, opposed the ordinance. He said it smelt strongly of repudiation. It was time the Convention had resorted to Constitution making, and not to considering such subjects as were being continually brought before the Convention. Every hour was costing the people two or three hundred dollars.

Harris, nigger, of Wake, said it was the old cry of partiality. He was not in favor of repudiation. He wanted something done to keep the property of the poor people out of the hands of Shylocks. He wanted something done for the poor, not the landed aristocracy.

Mr. May. We have been called here for the purpose of making a Constitution. As yet nothing towards making such a Constitution has been done. Bushel after bushel of ordinances were brought forward every day to be acted on. Week after week had passed without any thing being done. He was not particularly opposed to the ordinance but wanted the convention to get to business.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, moved to amend as follows: But the Trustee shall take measures to present the waste of the property, and if in houses and lands, to control the rents of the same, so as to apply them to the payment of the interest of the debt secured by trust.

Mr. Jones withdrew the amendment at the request of Mr. Watts.

Mr. Forkner moved to postpone until the constitution is adopted. Motion carried. Yeas 54; nays 38.

Leave of absence was granted Carey, nigger.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, introduced a resolution providing that the Convention will not entertain any proposition of purely legislative character after the hour of 11 o'clock each day, until the reports of the committees appointed to report matters looking to the formation of a constitution shall be considered and the constitution framed. The rules were suspended for its consideration.

Mr. Welker moved to lay on the table.

Mr. Jones demanded the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays being called, resulted in the negative—yeas 36; nays 53.

The question then recurred on the adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Watts moved to amend so as to allow members to speak only ten minutes upon any question, other than subjects reported by standing committees. [Hard on Jones and Tourgee—windmills.]

On motion of Mr. Abbott, the amendment was laid on the table. Mr. Abbott said that carried the resolution with it.

Mr. Jones then moved the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Rodman moved to amend as follows: except when there is no other business before the Convention.

Mr. Jones demanded the yeas and nays with the following result: yeas, 53; nays, 45.

On motion of Mr. Abbott, the resolution was then adopted.

By consent, Mr. Abbott introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That the contingent expenses of this Convention, including those for labor, be not paid until audited by the committee on contingent expenses and approved by the President and Secretary.

The rules were suspended, and the resolution was adopted.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, also by consent, introduced an ordinance, concerning the qualification of widows in administering on estates. Laid over.

The President appointed the following members on the committee provided for by Mr. McDonald's resolution in favor of H. B. Guthrie:—Messrs. McDonald, of Chatham; King, of Lenoir: McCubbins, of Rowan; Nicholson and Smith.

Here the Menagerie was closed until 7½ o'clock in the evening.

THE SCALAWAGS BY GAS LIGHT!

MONDAY EVENING.

The So-Called was called to order at 7½ o'clock.

Hayes, blackbird, offered a resolution allowing the servants employed about the Menagerie $2 per diem.

On motion of Galloway, claybank, the rules were suspended previous to action on the resolution.

Mr. Hodnett said that as the door-keepers and firemen were employed for that purpose, he was opposed to the resolution.

Galloway desired the passage of the resolution and said that if the gentlemen purpose to debate the question he was ready.

Mr. Forkner called up the resolution in regard to adjournment sine die.

On motion of Mr. Abbott it was adopted. Abbott then moved to put the Bill of Rights on its last reading. Motion prevailed.

The Clerk read the bill, when Heaton proclaimed the whole thing out of order. The committee on engrossment should have reported the bill as incorrectly engrossed. He moved to postpone and make it the special order for 10 A. M. to-morrow.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, said the suffrage question was the special order for that hour.

Mr. Rodman asked leave to offer an amendment to section 17, in order to allow its immediate consideration.

Mr. Heaton consented.

Mr. Rodman then offered the following amendment: And this remedy [Habeas Corpus] shall not be suspended except in time of war, insurrection or rebellion. He also moved to strike out the 20th section.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, opposed the amendment and motion. He said he would never vote to put a clause in the constitution to deprive the people of North Carolina of this sacred writ.

Mr. Welker concurred in King's remarks. The habeas corpus, he said, was our greatest safeguard: suspend it, and we are at the mercy of the tyrant, let that tyrant be Congress or an individual.

Mr. Abbott said while we were making a government strong enough to protect the citizen, we must make it strong enough to protect itself, and he therefore favored Mr. Rodman's amendment.

Mr. Nicholson believed it unwise to give a State the right to suspend the writ; he therefore, offered the following substitute for the 17th section:

Every person restrained of his liberty shall be entitled to the privilege of the writ, or other remedies, to enquire into the lawfulness thereof, and to remove the same if unlawful, and such writ or such remedy ought not to be denied nor delayed.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, said it was never necessary to suspend the writ. In time of war it would be better that a traitor should get out of the hands of the military than that an innocent man should suffer.

Mr. Jones opposed Mr. Rodman's amendment, given the best reasons therefor.

Mr. Nicholson withdrew his substitute, and the question recurred on Rodman's amendment.

The ayes and noes were demanded, and granted with the following result—ayes 6, noes 71.

YEAS—Messrs. Abbott, Ashley, Dowd, Fisher, Rich Rodman.

NYAS—Messrs. Andrews, Aydlott, Barnes, Benbow, Bryan, Carter, Candler, Cherry, Chillson, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Dickey, Duckworth, Durham, Forkner, Franklin, French, of Rockingham, Fullings, Gahagan, George, Glover, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Northampton, Gunter, Hare, Harris, of Wake, Harris, of Franklin, Hay, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, Heaton, Highsmith, Hobbs, Hodnett, Hoffler, Hollowell, Jones, of Caldwell, Jones, of Washington, King, Lincoln, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Logan, Mayo, McCubbins Merritt, McDonald, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, Moore, Mullican, Murphy, Newsom, Nicholson, Parker Parks, Petree, Peterson, Pierson, Ragland, Renfrow, Rhodes, Robbins, Rose, Smith, Stilwell, Taylor, Teague, Trogden, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker, Williams, of Sampson, Williamson.

Mr. Congleton moved to amend the 6th section by striking out all before the words "the State" in 4th line. He said his object was to secure the adoption of the constitution. He preferred to leave the matter to the legislature. Gen. Cathy had said the delegates were sent here to make a constitution, but they seemed to think differently.

Hayes, nigger, of Halifax, asked if the gentleman wanted repudiation.

Mr. Congleton: I do not—haven't preached it to-night, nor do I believe in it.

Nigger Hayes, in reply, said: Your amendment provides for repudiation anyhow; pass an act of repudiation, "an dis konvenshun may as well agern sinee dieo."

Congleton—I denounce again; I don't favor repudiation.

Mr. Welker would vote for the amendment, but had no hope of its passage. The people asked for bread, and the Convention gave them a stone.

Mr. Heaton favored the original section. He had seen letters from delegates' constituents expressing a determination to sustain the public faith and honor.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, said if it was in order he would move to strike out the whole of the 6th section, as it would have a powerful influence in defeating the constitution. He demanded the yeas and nays.

Galloway, nigger, hoped it would be granted, that he could see where the gentleman stood.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, thought the section inconsistent as it stood, and that it should be left to the Legislature. The amendment was read and resulted, ayes 10, nays 56.

The Scalawags then dispersed until 10 A. M. to-morrow.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

The Radicals are awaiting a telegram from General Meade before pushing the bill for the admission of Alabama. Meade promised to telegraph his decision to-day, and dispatches are expected to-night. There seems to be no fear that the Constitution will be defeated in either of the other States. Governor Holden writes Senator Wilson that North Carolina will give 30,000 majority for the new Constitution. Nevertheless, should it become necessary the States will be admitted with their new Constitutions regardless of the popular vote.—Washington Letter—Baltimore Gazette.

The lower house of the Tennessee Legislature has passed a resolution declaring Gen. U. S. Grant to be the choice of Tennessee for President. It is really wonderful, how Gen. Grant's popularity with the Radicals has increased since the damaging exposure of his conduct in regard to the War Office surrender by the President.

The Hon. George Ticknor Curtis, of New York, and the Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, of Massachusetts, have been named for United States Minister to England, in place of Mr. Adams, resigned. Mr. Curtis, however, has announced that he does not desire, and would not accept the position.

The Washington correspondent of the Radical Chicago Republican says that Mr. Washburne wrote all General Grant's letters to the President

Perplexities of a Patriot.

Mr. Thurlow Weed is in a predicament. The habits and convictions of his life stand in the way of his uniting with the Democratic party, while his honesty and patriotism forbid his acting with the Radicals. Yet he must be in politics, and must be a party man! In his last issue (the New York Commercial Advertiser) he says "that, as things go, we shall all witness the downfall of the Republican party is as certain as that causes produce effects." The conclusion of the article in which this sentence occurs looks something like the veteran was contemplating a plunge into Democracy, though the very thought must make his bones ache. He says:

In principle, in patriotism and in integrity, we unhesitatingly believe that President Johnson has the advantage of his leading Radical adversaries. We believe that he sincerely and honestly desires the loyal restoration of the Union, and the re-establishment of law and order, and the prosperity of the people. On the other hand, we as sincerely believe that Chase, Sumner, Butler and other Radical aspirants for the Presidency, pursue their selfish purpose reckless of all consequences, and that, for a negro vote in 1868, they are ready to hazard the whole future safety and welfare of the government and people. But of what use was President Johnson's patriotism and integrity even to his country, his party or himself? He has great intellectual strength, sleepless industry, high courage, and he entered upon the discharge of his Executive duties honestly and anxiously intent upon serving his country usefully and honorably. And yet the good he aimed at is unaccomplished. Of course, there is a "screw loose" somewhere. Can't it be found and "keyed up" in time to avert impending evils and dangers?—Richmond Whig.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.

Mr. Trumbull's bill introduced to-day, defining the jurisdiction of the U. S. Courts is, in effect as follows: It provides that all courts of the United States shall be bound by the acts of Congress as to political questions, and that it rests with Congress to determine what government is the established one in any State; and it is declared that no civil State governments exist in the excluded States of the South, and that no so called civil governments in such States shall be recognized by either the executive or judicial power of the United States until Congress shall so provide, or until such State is represented in the Congress of the United States.

The reconstruction acts are declared political in their character, the propriety or validity of which no judicial tribunal is competent to question, and the Supreme Court of the United States is hereby prohibited from taking jurisdiction of any case growing out of said acts in either of said States until such State shall be represented, &c., and such cases now pending before the Court shall be dismissed, and all acts authorizing an appeal, writ of error, of habeas corpus, or other proceeding to bring before said Court for review any case, civil or criminal, arising out of the execution of said reconstruction acts are hereby repealed.

Three thousand people turned out to hear the reception speeches and to welcome him. The old flag was enthusiastically cheered. Hundreds of ladies from windows and balconies and verandahs, on the principal streets, waved their handkerchiefs to him as he marched along. He was escorted to one of the leading hotels and is the guest of the city as long as he remains. All the speakers and marshals of the day were Confederate officers.

PROSPECTUS.

THE

NORTH CAROLINIAN,

A DAILY,

Democratic Newspaper,

PUBLISHED AT

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. A. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,

EDITORS.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment.

Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news, and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State press.

MARKETS will be carefully reported.

The Weekly North Carolinian

Is the largest and handsomest paper in the State and will be filled with choice family reading and selected literary matter.

PRICE OF SUBSCRIPTION:

WEEKLY, one year,	3 00

RATES OF ADVERTISING LIBERAL.

☞ As the North Carolinian retains the subscription list which it had as a semi-weekly at Wilson, it offers superior inducements to advertisers.

All Communications on business should be addressed to

The North Carolinian.

Raleigh, Tuesday, February 18, 1868.

☞ The North Carolinian is published every morning in the building North-East corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets—up stairs.

☞ Entrance under the sign of NICHOLS, GORMAN & NEATHERY, Book and Job Printers.

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The gentlemen composing the State Executive Committee, are respectfully requested to meet in this city on Friday, the 28th inst., at 11 o'clock. A full attendance is much desired.

By order of the

CHAIRMAN.

NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR.

The Radical organ in the city of Newbern, hoists the name of Ex-Gov. Holden, as its candidate for the next Governor of North Carolina, but is suspiciously silent in regard to its preference for Lieutenant-Governor. Much curiosity exists as to the individual who is, to use the classic phrase of Manager Cowles, to be "hitched to the tail" of the ticket.

CITY AND STATE.

Miscegenation.

Ye niggers who listen with credul'ity to the whispers of Radical scallwags, and fondly indulge the delusion they so cunningly offer you; who expect that the future will fulfill their promises of the past, and that the Cuffees of to-day will be the kings to-morrow, attend to the story of Theodore, prince of Abyssinia.

Most of our readers are doubtless aware of the raid attempted by Theodore, prince of Abyssinia, upon the affections of her Britanic Majesty, Queen Victoria, last year. This gay Lothario being a "gent" of African 'scent, took it into his wooly head that he would like to have Madame Vic. for his cara sposa, and accordingly sent her an offer of his hand. But the Caucasian Queen "couldn't see it in those lamps," and gave the royal nigger to understand that for a season she preferred to remain in statu quo, whereupon the old darkey flew into a rage, and calaboosed the British Consul and other Englishmen in his domains, to be held as hostages until the capricious fair one should choose to change her mind, a thing which women very rarely do. But the Queen was fastidious—couldn't bear the idea of wedding a nigger—was opposed to miscegenation, and, on the whole, enjoyed the climate of England too much to make a change of local habitation to Africa at once.

The amorous "contraband" thereupon flatly refused to restore the Englishmen to liberty, and Madame Vic at once dispatched a force of British troops to compel the miscegenating swain to deliver up his prisoners, who were in so extraordinary a manner placed in durance vile.

Late cable dispatches represent the British expeditionary forces as far advanced into the interior of Abyssinia; that they had thoroughly devastated with fire and sword the country through which they had marched, and that the Abyssinian troops, under the leadership of the King, had been utterly routed and dispersed whenever met. This news is extremely gratifying to us, and we hope to publish, ere long, the welcome news that Theodore himself has been captured and decapitated, or blown from the mouth of a cannon, a just doom in either case for all niggers who aspire to matrimonial alliances with white folks.

Mr. Macrae's Readings.

At the request of many citizens of our city, Mr. Macrae, the Scotch traveler and author gave his second Readings in Tucker Hall last evening to a very fashionable and enthusiastic audience. His impersonation of the different characters in the stories from which the selections for the evening's entertainment were made, surpassed, if possible, his previous efforts, while his rendition of "The Leap Wooing," was not only charming, but positively inimitable.

The Young Men's Christian Association expressed their heartfelt thanks to Mr. Macrae for his kindly assistance in their efforts to relieve the necessities of the indigent of the City.

Discontinued.

The proprietors of the Daily Press, of this city, announced through their paper of yesterday, that they had disposed of the material of their office, and would therefore discontinue the publication of the paper with that issue. We regret the retirement of the Messrs. Busbee, the editors of the Press, and wish them abundant success in whatever vocation they may adopt. To the proprietors of the Press we are indebted for many favors shown us since coming to the city. We heartily thank them and wish them too prosperity and happiness.

The City Officers.

We learn that the City officers elected by the Board of Commissioners on Saturday night have been notified that they will be required to take the test oath, before being allowed to enter on the discharge of their duties. We presume that this will force the majority of the appointees to resign their places. If the oath be insisted upon, it will be difficult to secure faithful and competent officers.

A New Daily.

The proprietors of the Raleigh Register, having purchased the material of the Daily Press, announce that they will commence the publication of the Register as a daily on Monday next. Mr. Goodloe remains in charge of the editorial department.

Apologetic.

Unavoidable circumstances have crowded out a variety of local and State matter prepared for this issue.

What is the greatest boon that the reconstruction menagerie at the Capitol can bestow on society? Why, a ba-boon, of course.

The Roanoke News learns that John A. Reid will be appointed to the vacancy in the sheriffalty of Halifax county, caused by the removal of Sheriff Snow, who has failed to render regular monthly reports, as required by orders from district headquarters.

We regret to learn that Thomas B. Carr, Editor of the Masonic Sun, published at Wilmington, N. C., and well known to the brotherhood in North Carolina by his valuable contributions to Masonic literature, was one of the heaviest sufferers by the destructive fire in Wilmington on Friday night last.

Among other things lost was his library, which was peculiarly valuable, and contained many works on Masonic jurisprudence now out of print. Some of the works burned, however, can be replaced, and Dr. Carr requests the Secretaries of Grand Lodges and Chapters to supply him with copies of the proceedings of their bodies.

Advices have been received in Washington from Kentucky, indicating the probable election of Lieutenant Governor Stevenson, Acting Governor of Kentucky, to the Senate, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Hon. James Guthrie. The Legislature of Kentucky will proceed to the election on Tuesday next.—The term for which Mr. Guthrie was elected expires March 4, 1871. If Mr. Stevenson should be elected he will have to pass through a trying ordeal before admission.

The Rev. Dr. Deems, formerly of this State, but now pastor of the "Church of the Strangers," New York City, will deliver a lecture in Wilmington on Thursday evening next, the proceeds to be devoted, under the management of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, to the relief of the poor of that city.

The Providence Journal speaks most flatteringly of a lecture recently delivered by Dr. Deems in the town of Lonsdale, Rhode Island.

The Wilmington papers announce the death of Capt. C. W. Styron, which occurred in that city on the 15th inst. Capt. Styron was a native of Beaufort, N. C., but had been for twenty years a resident of Wilmington. He was an officer of the Confederate army, and was highly esteemed by a very large circle of friends, who now mourn his departure. His disease was consumption. Capt. Styron, at the time of his death, was thirty-five years of age.

Mr. Sargent's Troupe has disbanded. Mr Phelps and Mrs. Stetson withdrew from the company some days since. The remainder of the troupe has been reorganized under the management of Mr. J. P. Sutton. The new Company made its first appearance in Wilmington last night.

The Pope has confirmed the nomination of the the Rev. James Gibbons, as bishop of the newly created See of North Carolina. Bishop Gibbons was for some time pastor of the Catholic Church Canton, Md., and was recently secretary to Archbishop Spalding, of Baltimore.

The Roanoke News says that the amount of cotton passing through that town by the Wilmington and Weldon railroad has greatly increased since the rise in the price. Thirty car loads are on the road between Goldsboro and Weldon, awaiting transportation.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,

Yours, with respect and gratitude,

W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well. Yours truly,

J. B. DANIEL.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

Rest and Unrest.

I.

A casement window, and a holly tree,
And a little bird who sings to me:
A little bird whose breast will glow,
When earth is covered with frost and snow,
And the bright red roses are all laid low.

II.

A swift brown stream with a varied edge
Of alder bushes, willow and sedge;
A restless bird who skims along
With a harsh shrill cry, which is not a song,
But a hasty utterance of something wrong.

III.

"Oh, bird in the holly tree, sing! sing out!
O let me hear what thy song is about,
It sounds so chastened and yet so glad,
And the swallow's harsh cry will drive me mad,
For it cries from a depth that is bitter sad."

IV.

Sang Robin: "Although the dear leaves fall fast
There are songs to be sung when Autumn is past
Of the deep red sunset in winter days,
Of the swift stream warm in the ruddy rays,
Of silvery frost-work I sing thee praise."

V.

But the swallow cried out: "I will not rest
Until I have drunk of the very best,
The winds only rise for a broken fall,
Waves clamber and rush, and crave and call—
I do but ech the longings of all!

VI.

I fly and cry with wings and breath,
For how can I bear to see nature's death?
I go to a land where all is complete,
Where the song the waves sing is perfectly sweet,
In unbroken cadence they fall at one's feet!"

VII.

The little bird turned on the holly tree,
Looked in at my window and sang to me:
"Hold on! sing on! through winter's blast,
Our songs are all broken, our longings too vast,
But listen! they promise Perfection at last!"

Wm. R. Barbee the Sculptor.

We learn that Mr. G. T. Barbee, of this city, has just returned from a visit to his brother, Wm. R. Barbee, the gifted and distinguished artist.—He landed at his secluded and romantic mountain home on Tuesday night, January 28th, and left him on the 5th instant. He found him suffering intensely under his cancerous affection, but bearing all with such patience and resignation as is hardly ever witnessed in suffering humanity. But what was strangely mysterious in the case was this:

In the midst of his severest agonies—being sometimes thrown into paroxysms under the sufferings of which it seemed impossible that he could live an hour, he would turn to his sympathising brother, and afflicted family, attempt to cheer them by expressing to them the confident assurance that there would be a decided change and improvement in his condition at exactly 12 o'clock on the coming Sabbath, the 2nd inst.

To say the least of it, this strange announcement excited curiosity, and Mr. Barbee not only remained until Sunday 12 o'clock, but until Wednesday last, and bewildering as it was to the mind of Mr. Barbee, and to the family of the suffering artist, all that was foretold, (or revealed as the sculptor stated,) did actually come to pass. On Sunday after 12 o'clock and up to Wednesday following, when Mr. Barbee left, his brother almost seemed to be a different man.

Not a sign of paroxysm has returned; he seemed almost freed from suffering; sleeping quietly and easy at night, (a thing entirely unusual,) appetite remarkably good, and he was cheerful almost to gaity. He assured his brother that he was going to get well and would pay him a visit at Lynchburg.—Richmond Exchange.

Consequence of Negro Suffrage.

A prominent politician of Virginia, Alex. H. H. Stuart, speaking of the negro suffrage question, broaches an idea which has failed to occur to many minds. Assuming, he says, that in all cases masses of men will be governed by their interests, how will the negro voter stand in regard to the United States bonds and the tariff question? You may control his vote for the first two or three elections, but it is as certain as effect follows cause, that in the end every negro voter will be in favor of repudiation and free trade. There is not a negro in the South who owns a dollar of United States bonds or who is interested in any species of manufacture. Under these circumstances is it to be expected that the negro will vote to tax himself to pay bonds or to protect manufactures in which he has no interest? Secession destroyed slavery and negro suffrage will repudiate the United States bonds and inaugurate free trade. When trade droops and disappears in New England she will repent in sackcloth and ashes of her gross infatuation.—Norfolk Day Book.

Wall Paper Superceded.

According to the Boston Transcript, a man in Cambridge, Massachusetts, has made a new invention by which wood hanging will take the place of paper hanging. The Transcript says:

"A very delicate, simple and beautiful machine has been constructed which will take a portion of a tree, after it has cut the length and width, and shave it up into thin ribbons as wide as a roll of housepaper, making one hundred or one hundred and fifty to the inch. These rolls of wood are placed on the walls by paper hangers with paste and brush, precisely in the same manner with paper. The wood is wet when used, and really works easier than paper, because it is much more tough and pliable. In these days, when variety is sought for one can finish the walls of his house in different woods to suit his taste. One room can be finished in birds' eye maple, another in chestnut, another in cherry, another in whitewood, and so on. Thus he has no imitation, but the real and genuine article upon his wails."

Joseph Jekyll was at the same time the brightest wit and the most shameless punster of Westminster Hall in the reign of George III. One of his best displays of brilliant impudence was perpetrated on a Welsh judge, who was alike notorious for his greed of office and his want of personal cleanliness. "My dear sir," Jekyll observed, in his most amiable manner, to this most unamiable personage, "you have asked the Minister for almost every thing else; why don't you ask him for a piece of soap and a nail-brush?"

In a school not far from Springfield, Mass., the teacher recently proposed to each of the juvenile pupils to write a composition on the employment of his or her parents. One little girl, whose father was a physician, drew her picture from real life, as follows:

"There was a little girl,
And he was very sick;
She sent for my father,
And died very quick."

Some laborers employed by Mr. Vanderbilt applied to have their time reduced to the eight hour system. The Commodore ordered their time reduced to seven hours and paid them pro rata. One of the Irishmen who did not like this turn of affairs said to his neighbor: "Well, Mike, I wish the Commodore was in ——." "Oh," said Pat, "bedad, that wouldn't help you, for he'd have the control of the whole place inside of a week!"

Has the President used no "cuss words" during the last few days?—Exchange.

Not one; but it is very likely that he would have d—d Stanton had not Stanton so effectually d—d himself, remarks Prentice.

40 YEARS.

Deems' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to Billup's Centreboard Cotton Scraper, and to Billup's Dixie Plow. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.
